

Minaret College Standard Collection Notice - Parents and students

1. Minaret College collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents/guardians before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the school. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College to provide schooling to students enrolled at school, exercise its duty of care, and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable students to take part in all the activities of Minaret College.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy Minaret's legal obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts and Public Health laws.
4. Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. We may ask you to provide medical reports about students from time to time.
5. Minaret College may disclose personal and sensitive information for educational, administrative and support purposes. This may include to:
 - other schools and teachers at those schools;
 - government departments (including for policy and funding purposes);
 - medical practitioners;
 - people providing educational, support and health services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, [sports] coaches, volunteers, and counsellors;
 - providers of learning and assessment tools;
 - assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN);
 - people providing administrative and financial services to the College;
 - anyone you authorise the College to disclose information to; and
 - anyone to whom Minaret College is required or authorised to disclose the information by law, including child protection laws.

6. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians.

7. Minaret College may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the school that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's servers which may be situated outside Australia.

Further information about the school's use of on online or 'cloud' service providers is contained in Minaret College Privacy and Internet Use Policies.

8. Minaret Privacy Policy, accessible on the school's website, sets out how parents or students may seek access to and correction of their personal information which the School has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the student, or where students have provided information in confidence. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.

9. Minaret Privacy Policy also sets out how parents and students can make a complaint about a breach of the APPs and how the complaint will be handled.

10. Minaret College may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.

11. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in school newsletters and magazines, on our website, Facebook or Skoolbag App. This may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions. Minaret College will obtain permissions from the student's parent or guardian (and from the student if appropriate) if we would like to include such photographs or videos in our promotional material or otherwise make this material available to the public.

12. If you provide Minaret College with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to us and why.

Note:

This Standard Collection Notice should be read together with Minaret College Privacy Policy.
